

American Red Cross

of Greater Columbus

How can I send an emergency message to my loved one, who just entered the military?

How are other families dealing with being separated from their loved ones?

How can I find people who understand what I'm going through?

As a member of a new military family, you may be unaware of all of the resources that are newly available to you. The American Red Cross is just one of many organizations that provide services to members of the U.S. Armed Forces and their families. Come and learn more about these services by attending one of our New Military Family Get-Together events.

You will learn how the American Red Cross:

- relays verified emergency messages to service members
- helps service members and their dependants access financial assistance through military aid societies
- provides appropriate referrals to other organizations that provide services

Please join us as we discuss these topics and meet other families, just like yours, who are making a transition as new military families. Children are welcome and refreshments will be available.
